

Cienega High School

---

To Whom it May Concern:

Alek Krupa is the type of baseball player and person that every program is looking for. Alek has the potential to be an outstanding baseball player and is tirelessly perfecting his craft. Alek is a quiet, confident leader among his peers. Alek will never be the player to settle just being “good enough”, his worth ethic and desire to improve will allow him to continue to push himself and teammates daily.

Alek shows pillars of good character; he is trustworthy, respectful, fair, and giving. These are evidenced in the relationships he has with peers, and coaches alike. I have had the pleasure of coaching Alek in high school and club baseball. No matter what setting you put Alek in, he allows himself to be coached and is one of the most liked people in both programs.

In the classroom Alek strives for success daily. He has an above average GPA and is a student to look up to. Alek is never one to disappoint as he is a leader inside and outside the classroom.

Thank you for your time,
